Sint Lucas Antwerpen

(Karel de Grote University College)

At a glance

Location	Antwerp, Belgium
Erasmus Code	ANTWERP59
Students	Approx. 10, 000
Campuses	Locations across Antwerp
Available places	2
Placement duration	1 semester (Spring)
Subject links	Illustration, Fine Art
Taught Language	Dutch (English widely spoken). Exchange programme in English.
Language support	Optional Dutch language course
Term dates	Mid-January—June
Website	https://www.sintlucasantwerpen.be/english/who-we-are-art-design-and-jewellery

Description

Karel de Grote university college was established in 1994 from the unification of thirteen former catholic university colleges in the city of Antwerp. The Faculty of Art and Design (Sint Lucas Antwerpen) is the University's smallest faculty with 400 students, 10% of whom choose to study abroad, and 16% of whom are incoming Erasmus students, and many of whom are actively involved in the college's Erasmus Student Network.

Surrounding Area

Antwerp itself is a large, historic city with impressive architecture and a population of over 500,000. It is has a strong reputation for fashion, is the home of the great artist Rubens and is well known for its role in the trade of diamonds.

Antwerp is very well located in the heart of Belgium, with good connections to art cities like Paris, Berlin and Amsterdam.

Accommodation

Students in Flanders usually rent rooms in shared student houses that typically cost between €300-400/month.

KdG's website recommends students use Kotweb to find a room: www.studentkotweb.be

How to apply

When successfully selected by UWE and nominated to Sint Lucas Antwerpen you will need to provide:

- Completed application form
- Motivation Letter
- CV and Portfolio (digital/post)

Application deadline: 15th of November

Further information

See website:
https://www.sintlucasantwerpen.be/international/incoming-students